Inspect the sentence. Preserve the record. Explore the alternative.

Evidence and imagination, without blurring their boundary.

AEE × LOGODECRYPT PRIME is a local experimental toolkit for text construction, source/candidate review, and controlled transformation.

One Python file · Python 3.10+ · Standard library · No model/API dependency

36 local implementation checks passed · Six executed synthetic demonstrations

The operational sequence

01 · Preserve the original and independent context.

02 · Inspect exact cue spans, scripts, controls and checklist matches.

03 · Compare source/candidate numbers and selected polarity changes.

04 · Generate bounded alternatives and label them as generated.

05 · Record deterministic, unsigned SHA256 integrity hashes.

These are synthetic demonstrations, not real corpus records, customer results or an accuracy benchmark. A generated reconstruction is never a recovered hidden intention.

IMPLEMENTATION AND BOUNDARIES

Useful because the boundary is visible.

PRIME preserves the source, quotes the cues, calculates a small feature set, and labels its speculative transformations. It does not claim to reconstruct missing verbatim speech, read minds, establish culpability, certify security or determine truth.

RUN LOCALLY

python aee_logodecrypt_prime.py --demo python aee_logodecrypt_prime.py --self-test python aee_logodecrypt_prime.py --file candidate.txt --context source.txt

WHAT THE CHECKS ESTABLISH

Thirty-six unit/smoke checks passed for source preservation, deterministic output, selected lexical counts, scripts, controls, number/polarity review cues, bounded expansion, offsets and integrity-tamper detection. They do not measure independent semantic accuracy, enterprise performance or customer value.

WHAT IS DELIBERATELY SEPARATE

Stipulated letter keys are creative associations, not historical WordNet/cache charges. Counterfactual word substitutions are not logical proof. The source comparator can miss role swaps and paraphrases. Unsigned hashes are not Ed25519 signatures or trusted provenance.

POSSIBLE WORKFLOWS

Source-fidelity regression checks; procurement/disclosure worksheets; Unicode inspection; authorized evaluation fixtures; evidence-first creative exploration. These are proposed use cases, not validated demand or integrations.
